

Welcome to 1st Grade

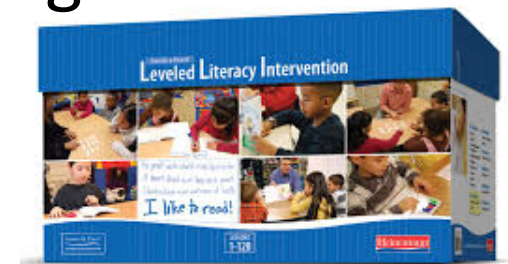

Policies

- Just Right Book Baggies go back and forth daily.
- We book shop once a week.
- We start off the year on or about the level they left off in from kindergarten.
- Homework packets come in daily.
- Math homework workbook stays home and only one page gets ripped out and returned each day.
- H folder for all homework and communications.
- Specials in our schedule may include: Art, Social Studies, Music, Media Arts and Gym.

Reading Units

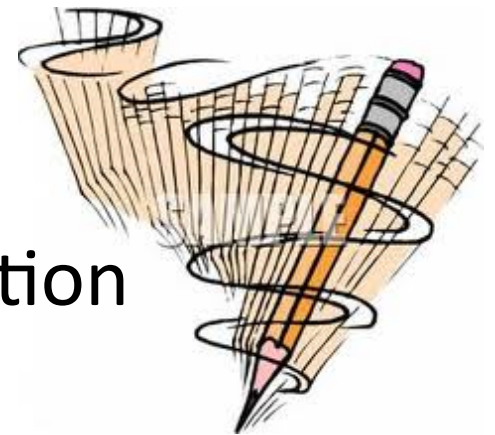

- Readers Build Good Habits
- Word Detectives
- Learn About the World by Reading
- Readers Get to Know the Characters in their Books
- Readers Can Be Their Own Teachers- Tackling Tricky Words
- Reading Across Genres to Learn About a Topic
- Dramatizing Characters and Deepening Comprehension in Reading Clubs

Writing Units

- Small Moments
- Writing How-To Books
- Non-Fiction Chapter Books
- Writing Reviews
- Poetry and Songs
- Writing Like Scientists
- From Scenes to Stories – Writing Fiction

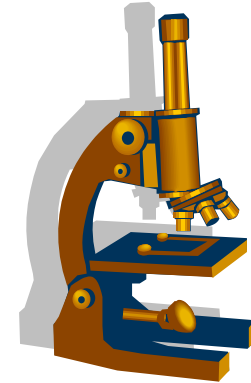

Math Concepts

- Addition Concepts
- Subtraction Concepts
- Addition Strategies
- Subtraction Strategies
- Addition and Subtraction Relationships
- Count and Model Numbers
- Compare Numbers
- Two-Digit Addition and Subtraction
- Measurement
- Represent Data
- 3 Dimensional Geometry
- 2 Dimensional Geometry
- Getting Ready for 2nd Grade Math

© Mary Anne Lloyd/Laughing Stock

Science Units

- Animal Diversity

- How are animals alike and different?

- Students can identify, describe and compare the physical structures of animals.

- Matter

- What are some properties of solids, liquids and gases?

- Students will observe and describe the 3 states of matter.

- Weather and Seasons

- What are some of the changes we notice between seasons?

- Students will observe and describe weather conditions that occur during each season.

- Science Learning Menus

Social Studies Units

- Families Then and Now
- Families change over time

Pioneers

- Westward travel in covered wagons

Women's History

Symbols of America

